

OBJECTIVE: Infiltrate the island TV studio and stop the mass blessing ritual broadcast before sunset

REWARD: If Davis' soul can be claimed by the Devil, he offers each operative a cursed beach house anywhere in the world, plus exclusive rights to one of the Seven Deadly Sins of their choice to use as a power source. If only the broadcast is stopped, he gifts a good paycheck (in the form of a chest filled with bloody pieces of silver).

CONSEQUENCE: The blessing would instantly kill millions of "impure" ocean-goers (read: everyone), crash the global economy via shipping disruption, and create a massive holy water reservoir that demons couldn't cross

INTRODUCTION

1983, Miami Beach. FIST is partaking in a well-earned, perfectly mundane, relaxing day at the beach. A worn yellow beach ball, decorated with little palm trees, bounces up to the operatives. The ball 'speaks' to FIST, projecting its voice in their minds, and reveals that it is, of course, SATAN (from the Bible). He explains that televangelist JIMMY "SUNSHINE" DAVIS is about to unknowingly help Angel PURITY-7 turn the PACIFIC OCEAN into holy water through the power of mass prayer.

The angel is manipulating Davis behind the scenes, using his massive viewership as a conduit for the blessing. Due to ancient celestial treaties, Satan can't directly intervene - but he can provide guidance and commentary via the beach ball, which FIST can take with them.

THE TRUTH

The broadcast tower's height and position make it a perfect conductor for the ritual at sunset. Davis is fully aware of the ritual's lethal consequences - in fact, he enthusiastically agreed to help when Purity-7 suggested it would guarantee him a place in Heaven. Davis figures killing a few million "sinners" is worth avoiding the eternal damnation that his decades of scamming, adultery, and embezzlement have earned him. What Davis doesn't realize is that participating in mass murder probably isn't helping his heavenly chances.

IMPORTANT: All NPCs will be wearing flip-flops at all times. There is no other footwear available.

 Note

This mission does not contain actual time-tracking. If FIST keeps fooling around, hint at the sun almost setting and the psychic energy projected from the island clearly intensifying.

BRIEFING

"Alright, alright, listen up ya animals! I got a situation here. These FANATICS - real pieces of work - they're gonna commit mass murder because they think they're better than everyone else. And trust me, I KNOW about thinking you're better than everyone else, that's kinda my whole thing!

So here's what's goin' down: Jimmy 'Sunshine' Davis - you know this jabroni? That TV preacher with the hair? He's about to help some hoity-toity angel turn the Pacific Ocean into holy water. We're talking instant death for millions of 'impure' people - which is basically everybody, if ya catch my drift. Plus it'll wreck global shipping AND create this massive anti-demon barrier. It's bad for business, is what I'm sayin'!

You got options: trash the studio, whack Davis, knock down that broadcast tower, or deal with this angel that's got its talons in him. And speakin' of Davis...

[The beach ball does a sleazy little roll forward]

That sweaty fraud's soul? Technically belongs to ME after all the deals he's made. If you can pin him down - alive, mind you - just press yours truly against his forehead and BAM! I collect what's mine. I'll make it worth your while - beach house anywhere in the world, plus rights to one of the Seven Deadly Sins as a power source. Or if you just stop the broadcast, I'll pay you the old-fashioned way - chest full of bloody silver, very traditional, very classy.

Also, would somebody PLEASE put me in a beach bag or somethin'? I got sand in places I didn't even know a beach ball could HAVE!"

- Satan, speaking through a beach ball that keeps trying to bounce dramatically for emphasis while somehow conveying a Philadelphia accent

SATAN (POSSESSED BEACH BALL)

HP: 1 (When popped, reappears nearby in 1D6 minutes)

ARMOR: 0 (Worn yellow rubber, decorative palm trees)

Special Ability: HELLISH VISION - Anyone holding Satan can see angels, demons, and other supernatural entities

Special Ability: ANCIENT KNOWLEDGE - Can provide running commentary on biblical lore, heavenly politics, and TV production techniques

Limitation: Must be carried/thrown/rolled - cannot move independently except for dramatic bouncing

Special Guest Star: Danny DeVito

The Prince of Darkness, Lord of All Evil, temporarily housed in a $1.99 beach ball due to complex celestial treaties. Surprisingly knowledgeable about television production. Will absolutely critique everyone's technique while contributing nothing physically useful to the mission. Cannot stop himself from adding "if you know what I mean" to innocent statements.

Following Satan's briefing, FIST digs up their buried cooler (filled with their minimal mission gear - handguns, knives etc., because you never know) and sets off for the island visible off in the ocean.

GETTING TO THE ISLAND

The studio complex sits on a private key about a mile offshore.

A "PARADISE WATER SPORTS" rental shack near the beach offers jetskis ($50/hour - 2 people, 3 HP, 1 ARMOR) and small boats ($100/hour - 5 people, 6HP, 1 ARMOR) to tourists. The rentals look easily "borrowable" if FIST prefers not to pay.

Two SECURITY BROS patrol the waters around the island on jetskis (3 HP, 1 ARMOR), while two more cruise in a white Boston Whaler dinghy (6 HP, 1 ARMOR). The patrols follow a loose figure-8 pattern around the island, occasionally stopping to flex at passing civilian boats.

THE ISLAND

The above map shows:

- GREY for rocks/elevation. Hard, but not impossible, to climb.
- DARK GREEN for denser foliage; palm trees, bushes.
- LIGHT GREEN for regular terrain; grass, occasional bushes and palm trees.

SECURITY COORDINATION

Brother CHAD coordinates security from his position in the CONTROL ROOM, maintaining constant radio contact with all Security Bros. Through his connection with PURITY-7, he can sense when holy ground is disturbed, making him particularly alert to intrusions.

If alerted to trouble (missed radio check-ins, gunfire, explosions, etc.), Chad will:

- Immediately redirect the nearest 2-3 Security Bros to investigate
- If the disturbance isn't resolved quickly, begin pulling Bros from non-essential posts (docks, tower) to secure the studio
- Only leave his position guarding Davis if FIST directly assaults the studio

Security Bros maintain rigid radio discipline:

- Check in every 10 minutes
- Report ANY suspicious activity
- Identify themselves by name ("TROY at broadcast tower, all clear bro!")
- Use "BRO CODE RED" to signal imminent threats
- Always sign off with "PEACE OUT BRO"

If Chad loses contact with any Security Bro for more than 10 minutes, he assumes the worst and responds accordingly. Remember that the Bros take their job seriously despite their meathead personas - they're loyal to Chad and coordinate effectively as a team.

[Voice breaking with fake emotion]

The Lord has shown me a vision of our waters cleansed of sin! Of pure, holy oceans! And all you need to do is call NOW and join us in prayer at sunset! Our operators are standing by! Don't let this divine opportunity pass you by! The time is NOW!"

- Guarded by 2 SECURITY BROS.

ENDINGS

WHEN SATAN CLAIMS DAVIS' SOUL

---

As the beach ball touches Davis' forehead, his eyes go wide with recognition.

"Wait... wait, our deal wasn't-"

The televangelist's protest is cut short as ethereal smoke begins pouring from his mouth and nose, swirling around the beach ball which now glows with hellish light. Davis' body slumps, empty, his gold-plated flip-flops clattering against the floor one final time.

"Oh yeah, that's the good stuff!"

Satan's beach ball form wobbles with satisfaction.

"A soul that corrupt? Chef's kiss That's gonna get me a promotion downstairs, if you know what I mean!"

WHEN PURITY-7 IS PULLED BACK TO HEAVEN

The fusion of angel and bodybuilder lets out an anguished "FATHER, SPOT ME!" as divine light begins to tear through Chad's flesh.

The six static-wings flicker and destabilize, reality warping around them as Heaven's recall signal grows stronger. With a sound like a thousand VHS tapes being ejected at once, PURITY-7 is violently ripped from Chad's body, leaving him collapsed and normal-sized on the ground. The angel's form stretches impossibly upward like a video effect gone wrong before vanishing with a thunderous pop.

IF FIST SAVES THE DAY

The beach ball bounces cheerfully as the sunset passes without incident.

"You guys are alright, you know that? I mean, for a bunch of mortals. Maybe I'll catch you at the beach house sometime - just, uh, maybe not the Pacific beach house, if you know what I mean!"

With a little pop and a whiff of brimstone, the ball deflates and vanishes, leaving behind only a small business card that reads "SATAN - Prince of Darkness, Lord of Lies, Beach Activities Coordinator" in elegant crimson script.

IF THE RITUAL COMPLETES

The setting sun turns blood-red as Davis completes the ritual. A wave of divine energy pulses outward from the broadcast tower, racing across the ocean at impossible speed. Millions of screams echo across the waters as the Pacific becomes sanctified, a great barrier of holy water stretching from pole to pole. Ships capsize as their crews dissolve. Sea life floats lifeless to the surface, too impure to survive the blessing. Satan's beach ball deflates with a sad wheeze.

"Well... that's gonna be a whole lot of paperwork downstairs. If anyone needs me, I'll be in Hell's HR department for the next century or two. Later, jabronis."

The world will never be the same. But hey, at least Jimmy "Sunshine" Davis got his guaranteed spot in Heaven... right?
